

Friends of Presqu'ile Volunteer Opportunity Communications Team

Communications Team Members

The Communications Committee is looking for two new members. Anyone with experience in communications, public relations, marketing, events organization, graphic design, social media or website management would make a great addition to this enthusiastic group. Meetings are held regularly and special activities are held throughout the summer season to promote the programs of The Friends

Contact The Team Leader at info@friendsofpresquile.on.ca with Communications Team as subject.
